LENOIR RHYNE COLLEGE

BECKY LANGFITT, EDITOR

Lenoir-Rhyne is people.

People brought together by mutual interests, by chance, by pursuit of knowledge and truth, by family ties, by religious interests—to form a community of learning.

ings, ideas, classes, programs, and statistics —*

it is first and foremost people. And diversified people at that!

*Created in His image, the similarity ends there.
For L-R is alive
with people whose diversity is both unique and colorful.*

*The greatest of all resources is the individual
— which no carpenter can build, no scientist can simulate, and no machine can replace.*

Each individual is unique and indispensable. Each is important in his or her own way. But . . .

no man is an island entire of himself.

By interacting with others and gaining the wisdom of others brings fulfillment. Out of these interactions comes a slow awareness that the culmination of both academic and social learning, in harmony with each other, is the college community. And that our community—Lenoir-Rhyne College—has, since 1891, rested on the most precious of foundations—its people.

DEDICATION

... for an abiding affection for the college community

... for care given to responsibilities day-by-day

... for patience, example, and genuine concern in working with the students of Lenoir-Rhyne

... and for that extra measure that comes from love alone

the Senior Class is pleased to dedicate the 1979 HACAWA to

Mrs. Estelle Marlowe

"Spring Fever" hit Lenoir-Rhyne with full force by the time Spring Weekend 1978 arrived. The gala of activities, led by co-chairmen, Cathy Caldwell and David Pruett, featured a movie, bands, a dance followed by breakfast, and a variety of outdoor games and competition. Above right: Tom Page attempts to blow the largest bubble. Above left: Cheryl Lombard and Sherwin Speight cool off from the excitement of the weekend.

Spuller "Steals Show" At Honors Convocation

May 15, 1978 was a red letter day for acting Dean of Academic Affairs Robert L. Spuller. He was awarded the Raymond M. Bost Distinguished Professor Award for his service as biology professor and concern for the educational pursuits of Lenoir-Rhyne. The Class of 1978 voted to honor Dr. Spuller with the dedication of the 1978 Hacawa for both his academic endeavors and his concern for students' welfare. Although he returned to the classroom in the fall of 1978, his service as interim Dean will not soon be forgotten. Left, Donna Schurkus presents Dr. James Garrett with the plaque recognizing him for his outstanding service to the community. Below left, Dr. Spuller found the Honors Convocation a little hard to believe. Below right, SGA president Alfred Chine presents Bill Milholland with the President's Award for his service to the SGA over the past year. Opposite page top, editor Bill Mayberry adds another honor to Dr. Spuller's list by presenting the 1978 Hacawa dedicated to him.

GRADUATION 1978

Lenoir-Rhyne College held its eighty-seventh graduation exercises on Sunday, May 28, 1978, in the P.E. Monroe Auditorium.

The baccalaureate service was conducted at 10:30 a.m. with the Reverend George R. Whittecar (above left), President of the North Carolina Synod of the Lutheran Church in America, speaking on the subject, "Reaching for the Highest."

The LR choir sang under the direction of E. Ray McNeely, Jr., with Nancy Weissenberg as soloist. Les Sigman and Tim Phillips played trumpet to accompany Larry Lowder at the organ.

Formal commencement exercises began at 3:30 p.m. with the march into the auditorium, led by faculty marshal Dr. William Shuford (above top). Mr. David Lawrence (opposite bottom left), executive editor of "The Charlotte Observer" spoke to the graduating class of 1978.

Honorary degrees were awarded Rufus Dalton, Edgar Trexler, Jr., and Charles Tuttle. First honor graduate of the class was Carol Smith (opposite bottom right), a nursing major.

New Breed Arrives

Bringing with them everything but the kitchen sink, the Class of 1982 made their entrance onto the campus on Friday, August 25. Excitement was definitely in the air as freshmen made preparations for embarking on a new adventure in their lives. With the largest number of resident freshmen in recent L-R history, temporary housing was found for many new students. Third floor Highland Hall was used for upperclasswomen overflow while Beta House and Morgan lounges handled the extra freshmen. Despite the housing difficulties, spirit was running high as Prologue began. Left, Susan Buhrows looks back one more time to see how many more trips up three flights of stairs will be needed to help move this freshman in. Below left, new resident director, Jerry Shaw, explains one more time how to fill out the numerous forms required before moving into a dorm room. Refreshments were the highlight of the day for many weary parents who gratefully accepted the hospitality of the alumni below. Opposite page top left, Due to the heat of the weekend, many Prologue activities were held outdoors in the hopes of shade from a tree. Top right, Students enjoyed the now traditional bus tour of Hickory which ends in the passing out of coupons, free gifts, and a T-shirt. Below, Unwinding after all the day's activities wasn't hard for those students who took advantage of the Disco in the center.

A shortened period of time for Prologue meant less time for freshmen and transfers to be acquainted with L-R life before the upperclassmen invaded the campus. Under the leadership of Mike Imboden, 1978 Prologue teamed upperclassmen with faculty members as co-leaders with groups of 10-15 freshmen or transfers. A new twist to Prologue this year was the addition of special activities designed for the transfers which included a casino party. Prologue offers new students a chance to meet each other, get acclimated to L-R's campus, and get settled in before the rush of classes begins. Opposite page top, A perplexed student tries to get her schedule completed with the assistance of Dr. James Garrett. Below, Dr. Harold Kupke leads the discussion process as his Prologue group tries to decide why they came to college. To the left, The Disco provides an opportunity to get better acquainted and learn the newest dance steps. Below, junior Jane Harris gives her group a better picture of how L-R life really is.

HOMECOMING '78

COUNTRY

JAMBOREE

Homecoming chairmen, William Lombard and Jeannie Oettl, created a "Country Bear Jamboree" that gave Homecoming 1978 a thrill of country excitement. The weekend included a concert with "Mike Williams" and "Razzmatazz", a Country Bear Parade, a Big Bear Victory over Carson-Newman, the crowning of a new queen, a Victory Jamboree with the "jam" of "Eastern Seaboard" plus the joy of having parents and alumni here to share our Country Bear Weekend with us.

President Opened Year

Lenoir-Rhyne College president, Dr. Albert Anderson, officially opened the 88th academic year with the annual President's Convocation on September 4.

The theme of his remarks was the strangeness of a college. Dr. Anderson explained that it is not a home away from home or a microcosm of the real world either, but rather that a college is a place of vision both past and future. Its purpose being to give one the makings of a well educated character.

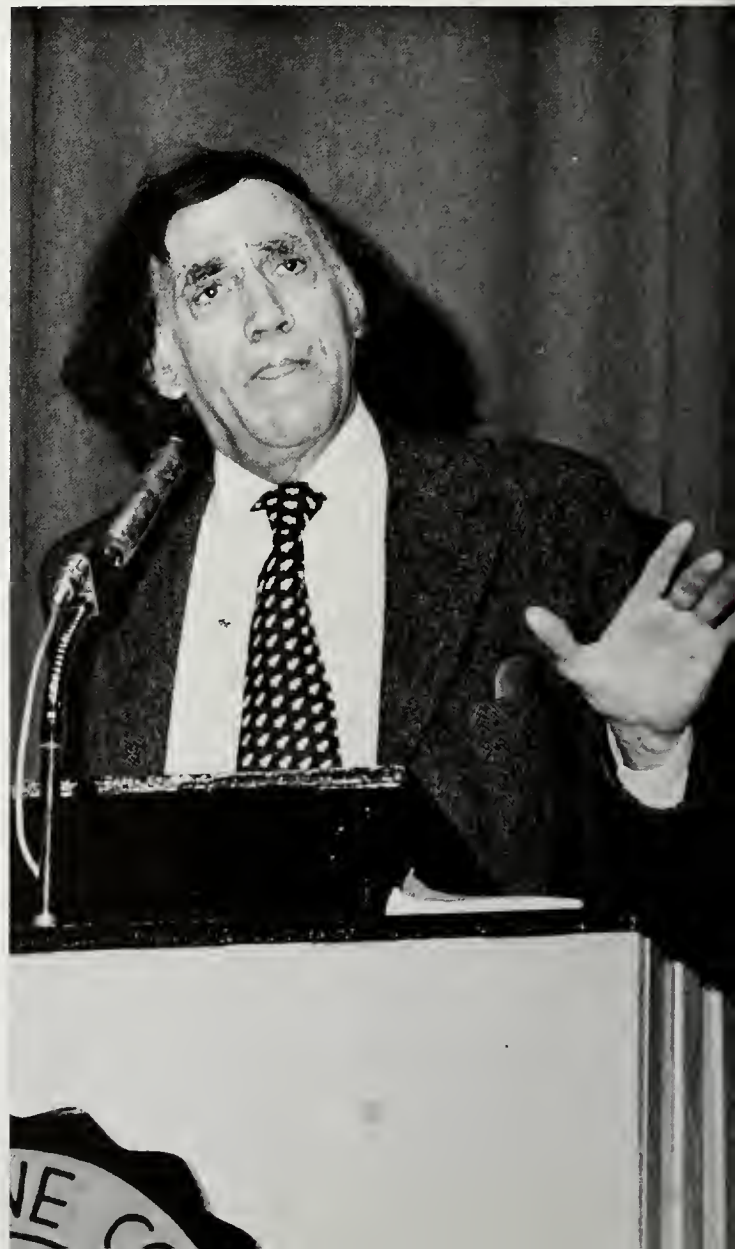

Bypassing the traditional hymn and the Alma Mater, the service included scripture reading and a prayer by college chaplain Larry Yoder.

Kunstler "Blasts" System

William Kunstler, one of the nation's most successful and most controversial lawyers, "blasted" the U.S. judicial system in the October 2 convocation.

He cited that people should be skeptical of the judicial process, although he gave his full support to the preservation of the jury system, citing it as one of the most important parts of the judicial system.

A practicing lawyer for 34 years, Kunstler was involved in the trial of the Chicago 7, as well as various civil rights cases in the 1960's and early '70's.

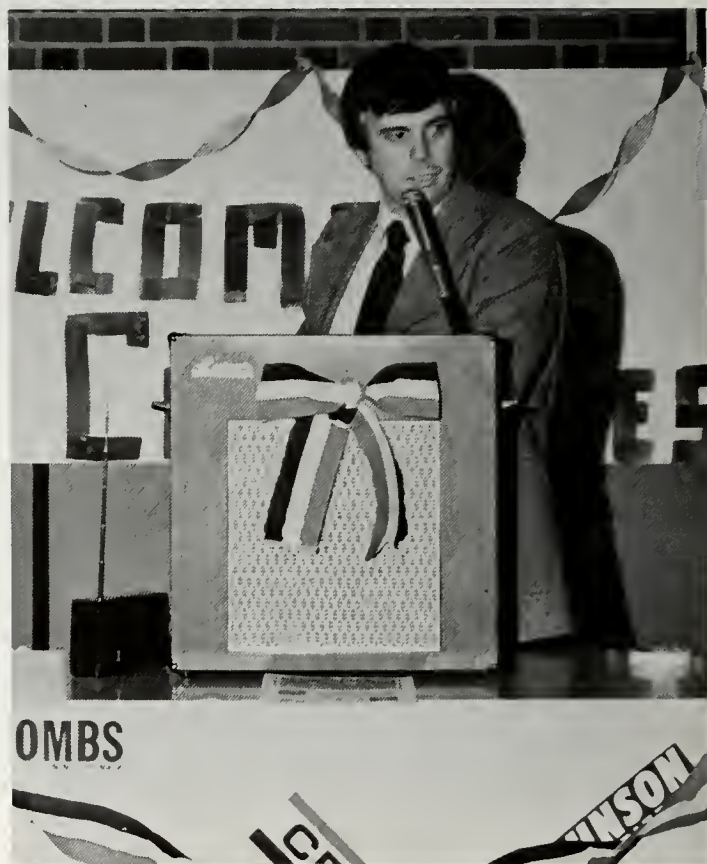

ABC'S Howard Smith Visited Lenoir-Rhyne; Prominent Clergyman Lectured on Secular Society

Howard K. Smith, popular newscaster with the American Broadcasting Company, visited the LR campus in October (see above). Mr. Smith spoke on traditional American values. The Reverend Richard J. Nehaus, a leading advocate of social change in America, came to campus in November. Editor of a monthly journal dealing with ethics and social change, Reverend Nehaus spoke on "The Struggle for Democratic Pluralism."

Students, Candidates Mingled At Election-Central

The lobby of the Cromer Center was transferred into "Election Central" headquarters on election night in early November, as results began to pour-in over the numerous television sets in the Center (see below).

Candidates for various offices made appearances during the evening, including LR's own political science prof, Dr.

Commentary was made during the evening by several observers of the political-scene, including Dr. Grant Hammond (above right).

Speakers Highlighted Career Awareness Day

The speakers at Lenoir-Rhyne College's Career Awareness Day convocation in November knew what they were talking about.

as a part of a campus-wide emphasis on career discussions.

Mrs. Bost was a correspondent for WBTV news in Charlotte, Reverend Conrad was pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Epiphany (Winston-Salem) and a 1953 LR graduate, and Mr. Holtzer was retired chairman of the 3M Company and a member of the LR development board.

Chapel Moved To Center

Wednesday morning chapel services were moved to the Cromer Center this year. The move was designed to make chapel more of a regular, familiar activity and not segregated from the rest of life. The services were led by Chaplain Yoder, students, and visiting Pastors-in-Residence. Cheerful and contemporary, the services are non-denominational in nature and are meant to be chances for the entire community to gather together in worship. Left and below right, Chris Shogren leads the service as she and the other "Fools for Christ" bring a new dimension to traditional worship. Below left, Chaplain Larry Yoder delivers the message of the day.

Nantucket Was "Smash Hit"

The Program Board sponsored regional favorite rock group Nantucket in L-R's first big concert of the new year. Playing favorites like "Heartbreaker", "Spring Fever", and "Born in a Honky Tonk", they were well received by the large crowd that flooded into P.E. Monroe Auditorium January 10, 1979. Left, lead vocal Larry Uzell ponders the meaning of the words to "Heartbreaker" as Mark Downing, below, picks the tune out on the guitar. All in all, it was a great way to start out the new semester on campus.

Apes Repeated As College Bowl Winners

The President

Dr. Albert B. Anderson is in the third year of his presidency. A graduate of Harvard University, Dr. Anderson was inaugurated in January, 1977 (right).

A man of many interests and talents, the president enjoys football (shown below with Mrs. Anderson and guests at Homecoming). He admires photography (opposite top left with former Trustees head Dr. Wallace Jorgenson), he chats with Washington Redskins quarterback Joe Theisman (opposite top right), and he exhibits his own woodcarving of Diogenes (opposite below).

Dedicated to scholastic excellence, Dr. Anderson is committed to those programs to make L-R a community-of-learning-in-action.

Arthur Puotinen Named New Academic Dean At L-R

Arthur E. Puotinen began his first year as LR's new academic dean. He is a graduate of Suomi College (Michigan), Augustana College (Illinois), the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, and the Divinity School of the University of Chicago. His teaching and administrative duties, as well as several pastorates, were also in Michigan and Illinois.

Dr. Puotinen and his wife, Judith, are the parents of three daughters.

Dean Puotinen, who began his work in July, 1978, has already set in motion several projects, including task forces to research and provide information on key campus issues, such as curriculum, continuing education, honors, and developmental education.

Friday Forums Provided "Marketplace" For Variety

Friday Forums were added to the L-R campus this year. Designed to give the L-R community a chance to exchange ideas, many proved to be very exciting indeed. Right, Coach Jack Huss was put on the firing line to explain the '78 football team's slump. Urging everyone to get behind the Bears, Coach Huss promised better things in upcoming games. Perhaps one of the biggest drawing cards for the forums were the Playmakers. Whether previewing Tartuffe or a one act play, as below, the Cromer Center was always packed. Explaining his conceptions about "engagement", Dr. Arthur Puotinen, new Academic Dean, opposite page top, took the forum spot late first semester. Amusing the crowd with anecdotes about his background, Dr. Puotinen outlined his plan for the future at Lenoir-Rhyne. The core curriculum was an ongoing debate all year on campus. Dr. James Slavin, opposite page below, took advantage of the Friday Forum slot to share his views about the core. All in all, Forums proved to be an informative, entertaining way to spend Friday mornings.

Rudisill Library — Campus Center of Learning

The Carl Rudisill Library is the center of learning on the Lenoir-Rhyne campus. It has a full-time staff of 10 and uses 36 student assistants. The library collection numbers 98,000 volumes with an average monthly circulation of 1300 to 1500 volumes. The library subscribes to 700 periodicals, has 250 titles on microfilm, and 40 titles on microfiche.

Each year the library conducts an introduction to its facilities for freshmen and during the spring term invites them back for an introduction to the research tools available in the library. A recent addition to the library's services is a media-collection to strengthen the remedial English program at LR.

Jefferson Pilot Gift to Gear LR For TV

With the help of the Jefferson-Pilot Foundation of Charlotte, LR is gearing up for work in television production. A $25,000 contribution from Jefferson-Pilot has enabled the college to purchase the equipment necessary for video work.

Dr. Robin Gatwood, director of educational communications and technology at LR, now has two color portable cameras, portable and studio tape decks, a video cassette player, two video monitors, a camera switcher, studio lighting equipment, and a modulator to feed its signal into cable TV.

"Dartmouth Model" Enhanced Language Program

With the help of a grant from the Exxon Foundation, Lenoir-Rhyne became one of fewer than 20 colleges in the nation to implement the Dartmouth Model into its program of foreign language instruction.

The model features increased contact hours, the use of students as assistant teachers, the integration of laboratory work with course objectives and the creation of a positive linguistic atmosphere."

French instructors Bohdan Kuropas and Augustin Quillici (left) served as master teachers of the program in its first year, and now the method has been extended to include the teaching of Spanish and German.

Lineberger Center to Improve Core Curriculum

Plans were unveiled this year for the Lineberger Center for Cultural and Educational Renewal, a program made possible by an endowment from the Lineberger Foundation of Belmont.

The Center will promote values-oriented education at Lenoir-Rhyne and extend such general education to the public, seeking to renew the foundations of culture through the education of students and others who are similarly concerned.

Dr. Grant Hammond, who heads the Center (at right) noted that a high priority will be to improve the quality and effectiveness of LR's core curriculum.

"Glass Menagerie" Ended '78 Drama Year

Tennessee Williams' beautiful and moving memory-play, "The Glass Menagerie," was the final LR Playmaker production for the 1977-78 season.

Performed in arena to large audiences, the cast featured Lori Wolford (see opposite page) as Laura; Julia Clore (left) as Amanda, the mother; Harold Rowe (below left) as Tom, the brother; and Brian Bishop (below right) as Jim, the gentleman-caller.

Dr. Marion Love was in charge of direction, costume design was by Suzanne Jeffers, Courtland Raby, Jr. designed the set and lighting, and Leigh Derwin was stage manager.

Summer Arts Festival "Well Received"

A summer arts festival, which featured drama, ballet, film, and music, was held at Lenoir-Rhyne College between July 28 and August 5, 1978. Large audiences which attended all events were high in their praise of the quality of the festival.

The Summer Theatre presented the Pulitzer Prize-winning drama, "The Subject Was Roses," by Frank Gilroy. Under the direction of Dr. Ellis Boatmon, the cast featured Bill Anderson, Pamela Whitener, and Ben Rawls (shown below).

Playmakers Toured With Season's Opener

The Playmakers began their 1978-79 season with Robert Bolt's epic story of a conscience-in-struggle, "A Man For All Seasons." And for the first time in many years the college drama troupe carried the production on tour.

With all four performances being given within church-walls, the November 5 opener was at St. John's Lutheran Church (Salisbury), on November 12 the Playmakers were at Augusburg Lutheran Church (Winston-Salem), on November 19 they performed at Hickory's Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, and the final performance was at the campus church, St. Andrew's Lutheran.

The entire production was under the direction of Theatre Arts chairman Dr. Marion Love. Costuming was by Suzanne Jeffers, lighting by Courtland Raby, Jr., and Lori Wolford served as assistant director and stage manager.

Bolt's moving story of Sir Thomas More, chancellor to King Henry VIII, was a fitting vehicle for the talent of Lenoir-Rhyne's artist-in-residence, George K. Hansen, Jr. Hansen, a veteran of LR summer theatre shows, portrayed More with sensitivity and poise. The king was well played by theatre arts major David Lewis. The two are pictured below.

Others in the very talented cast included Johnny McNeill (Common Man), Fred Meuter III (Richard Rich), Michael Miller (Duke of Norfolk), Hal Rowe (Archbishop Thomas Cranmer), Harold Bass (Signor Chapuys), and Debbi Stottlemeyer (Woman).

" . . . I believe, when statesmen forsake their own private conscience for the sake of their public duties . . . they lead their country by a short route to chaos."

"Tartuffe" Was Polished Tale of Faked Piety

"Tartuffe," Moliere's witty and biting satire on religious hypocrisy, was presented by the LR Playmakers in an arena production.

The two-act drama was directed by Suzanne Jeffers, with stage and light design by Cortland Raby, Jr., and costume design by Brenda Greenlease. Willie Bacote served as assistant director and stage manager.

LRC Choir Performed At LCA Installation

A long weekend trip to New York City climaxed the 1978 Choir season. Invited to sing at the installation service of Dr. James Crumley as President of the Lutheran Church of America, the choir spent many long hours preparing for the prestigious honor. When at last the practice was over, it was time to put it to the test. The choir left December 1 for an adventure that won't soon be forgotten. Many visiting the "Big Apple" for the first time, the choir had time off to explore on their own Saturday and Sunday night. Activities ranged from early Christmas shopping, taking in a Broadway show, to just plain sightseeing. But the big event was yet to come. At Riverside Lutheran Church on December 3, 1978, the Lenoir-Rhyne College Choir gave a beautiful performance under the direction of Mr. Ray McNeely to commemorate the installation of Dr. Crumley. By late Monday night the Choir was back in Hickory with the trip behind them but the memories will last forever. The A Cappella Choir also completed a successful European tour in the summer of 1978 as well as their annual spring tour.

Bear Baseball

The spring of 1978 saw a marked improvement in the L-R baseball program. This improvement came not only in performance, but in management as well, for Head Coach Billy Alton seemed to have the entire program moving in the right direction.

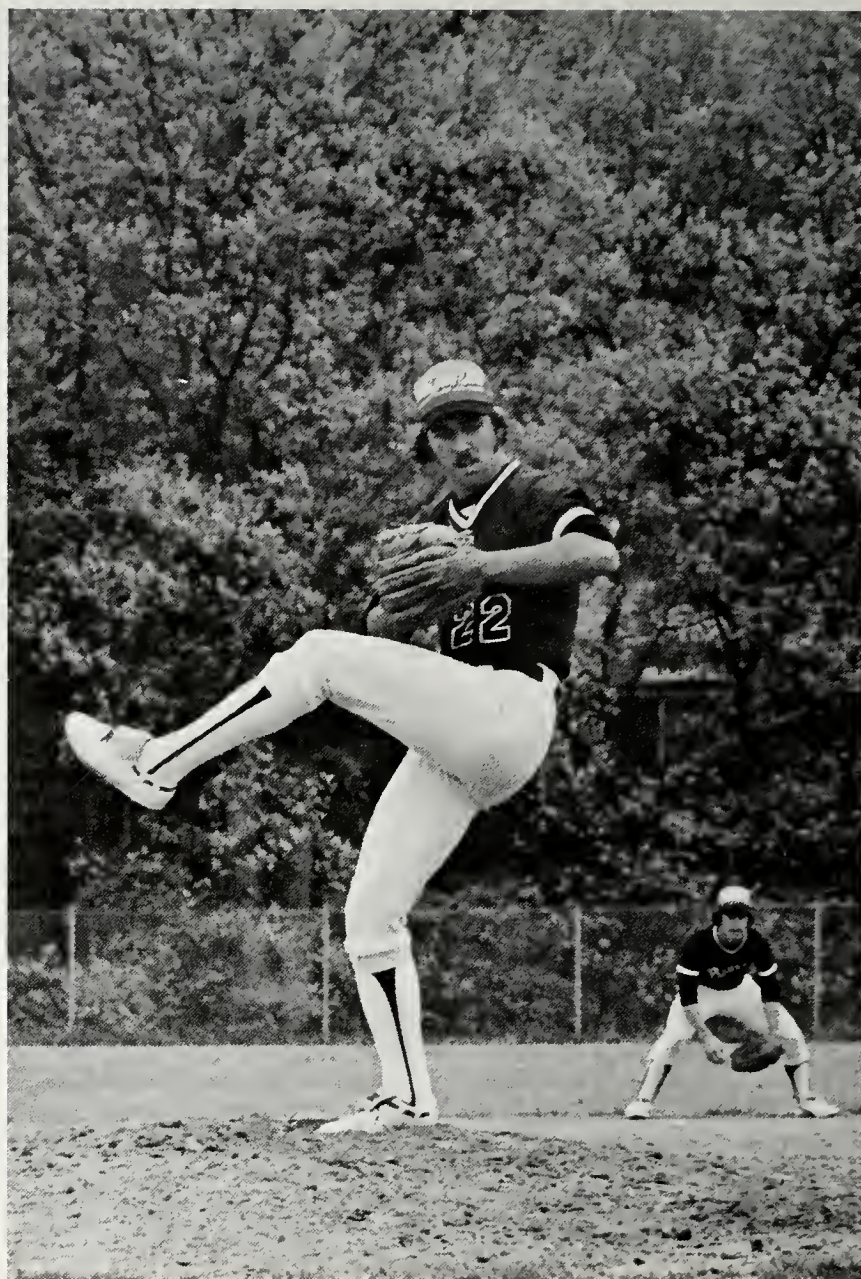

Lenoir-Rhyne began its season against baseball powers such as the University of South Carolina and Indiana State University, where the Bears made a respectable showing. Then followed a spring-break tour of Florida which allowed the team to concentrate on the fundamentals of the game. Afterwards, L-R seemed greatly improved and were in contention for a district playoff berth until the last day of the season.

The Bears got outstanding performances from many players, including All-State catcher Joel Fender and hard-hitting Darrell Jones—who were chosen co-most valuable players of the team. Although Jones graduated, Fender returned to lead a strong field of players for Lenoir-Rhyne. Hopefully, the returning players would continue the improvement begun by the 1978 squad.

Future Of Men's Tennis Appeared Bright

Youth-oriented Lenoir-Rhyne men's tennis team gained a great deal of experience as it battled through a competitive season. Transfers Lew Semones and Blaine Burton helped bolster the line-up with freshmen Skip Warwick and Bobby Mauney contributing greatly. Bobby Stevens, the only returning letterman, and Steve Crittenden filled out the rest of the top-six with Allan Dukes rounding out the line-up.

Claude Brewer served as men's tennis coach.

Highlight wins of the season included matches over Warren Wilson and Catawba colleges.

Women's Tennis "Maturing" At Lenoir-Rhyne

Women's tennis at Lenoir-Rhyne has been maturing, according to head coach Pat Smith. Moving from division III to the much-larger division II of the NCAIAW, the Lady Bears now could compete on a state, regional, and national level.

With maturity and experience, the 1978 squad featured all freshmen and sophomores and gave every reason to expect "big things" in the future.

Left: Betsy Kahn follows through on a backhand drive. Below: Ruth Garrison intently follows the ball through her forehand stroke.

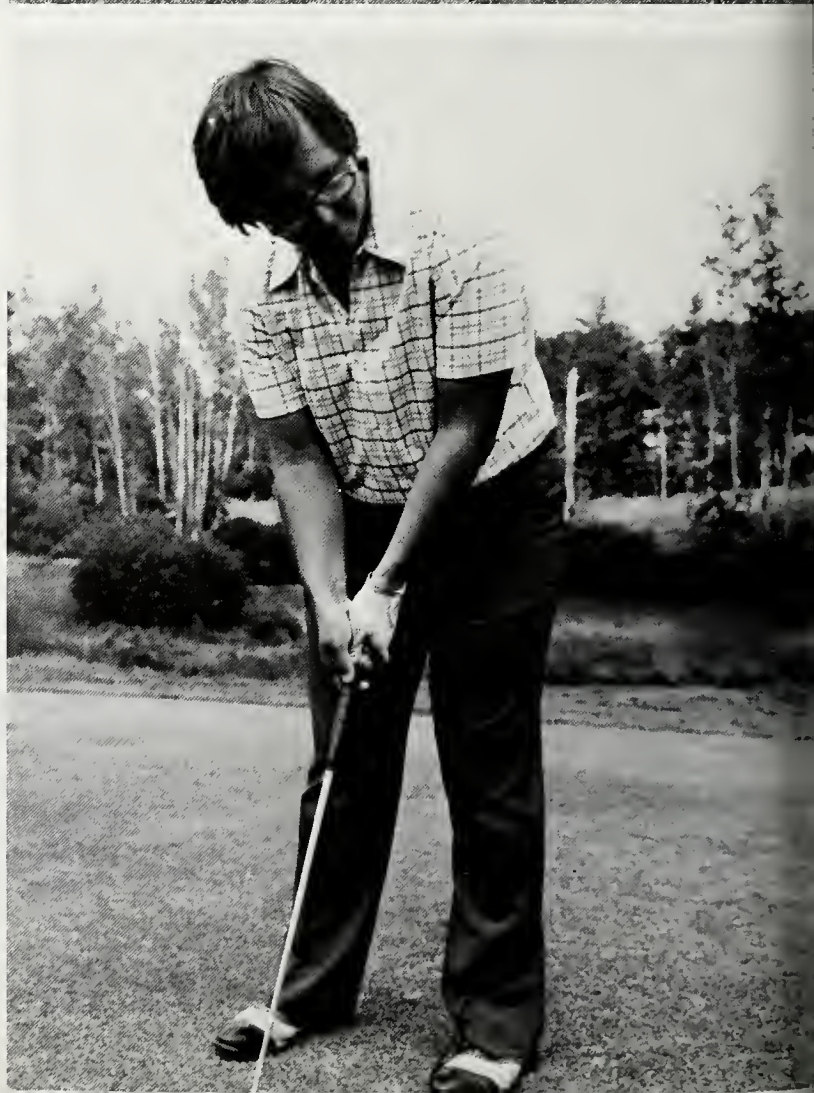

It was an experienced team laden with veterans that represented Lenoir-Rhyne in golf competition in 1978. Wins were registered over Catawba, Belmont Abbey, Pfeiffer, UNC-Asheville, Elon, and Western Carolina.

One of the finest moments for Bear golfers came at the Elon Invitational Tournament in Burlington on April 1-2, 1978, where on the second day of play, L-R shot a 386-total, which bested scores of Duke and Virginia Tech.

L-R golfer Tim Bowman placed ninth at the N.A.I.A. District 26 tournament in Salisbury at the end of the season.

Hanley Painter was Bear golf coach.

Individuals Star in L-R Track

Consistent with the trend of recent years, the 1978 LR track team again emphasized quality performances from a few athletes instead of a large number of participants. Noteworthy from this squad was the showing of Steve Crittenden and Cleve Simmons (shown pictured) and Don Strayhorn, all who excelled in sprinting competition. Good performances were also registered from Monte Broome and Ned Parrish in the field events. Ken Rutledge, however, turned in the best performance of the season, particularly in the shot-put events, being named the most valuable player of the year.

The Bears for 1978 boasted five seniors: Ned Parrish, Mark Barbour, Jerry Ratchford, Tony Carswell, and Mike McLendon.

The captains for the squad were Parrish and Barbour, shown above with Head Coach Jack Huss. Mark Barbour (#86) and Ned Parrish (#69) were from the same hometown—Benson, North Carolina. Both played also at the same high school—South Johnston, and both captained the same team their respective senior seasons in high school.

Carswell hailed from Morganton; Ratchford's hometown was Bessemer City; and McLendon was from Charlotte.

Bears, "Under Fire" All Season, Posted 6-5 Record

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Bears, coached for the fifth year by Jack Huss, were "under fire" all season—the pressure largely a result of three games lost in succession. And yet the team finished in third place in the SAC-8 Conference, and with a tally of six wins and five losses, which was an improvement over the two previous years.

The Bears began their '78 schedule with four road trips. Johnson C. Smith fell 26-13 with some ease, but then came three bitter, consecutive losses: 17-0 to Wofford, 14-7 to Presbyterian, and 26-6 to Newberry. At times the offense had appeared sluggish and unable to jell within the twenty-yard line.

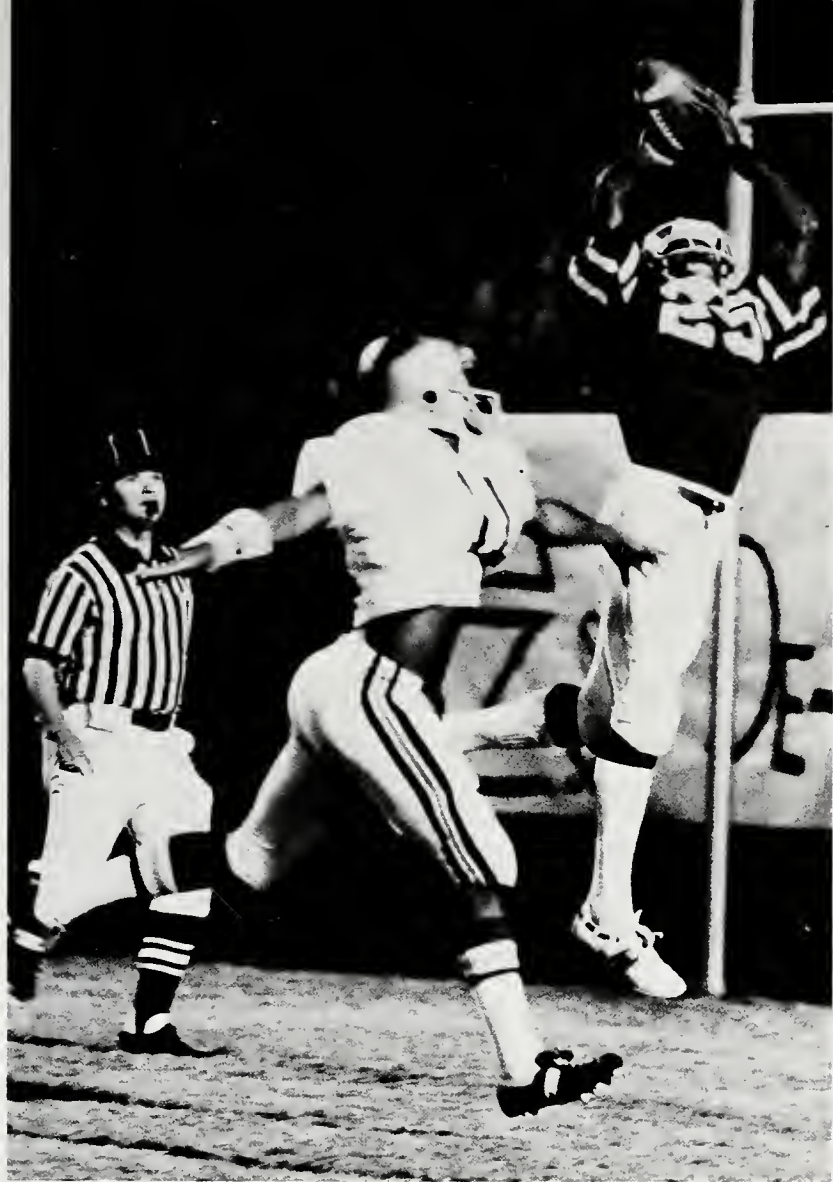

When the Bears arrived at home for the game with Gardner-Webb there were rumblings of discontent among some LR fans. But, the Bears settled down to play some excellent ball, much of it as a result of renewed confidence in themselves, stemming from a change by Coach Huss in the offensive formation. LR, hungry for revenge against the Dogs, whipped GW, 28-7. In the next game against a much-improved Appalachian, the Bears lost, 49-28, but LR had led at halftime and many detected a fresh spirit within the Bears.

That spirit now came to the forefront. Mars Hill was beaten, 38-26; Libery Baptist fell, 28-16; and a Homecoming crowd was treated to a 35-28 defeat of Carson-Newman. In fact, the Bears had won five games when nationally-ranked Elon came to Hickory. Lenoir-Rhyne would play one of its finest games of the year, losing 21-20 in the final nineteen seconds on an Elon field goal. In the final game with Catawba, the Bears looked most impressive as they whipped the Indians, 24-13.

Rick Mashburn, LR's freshman punter, would be ranked sixth in the nation among NAIA punters at season's end; four Bears—Rusty Wall, Ned Parrish, Rick Mashburn, and Don Strayhorn—would be chosen to the All-District 26 Team; and Ronnie Deal and Rick Mashburn would receive All-SAC 8 recognition.

"Much Improved" Soccer Bears Look To Future

You might think that a team that ended its season at 0-7-2 would be hard-pressed to be optimistic, but well might the Bears of Lenoir-Rhyne look for good things next season in soccer. The 1978 club had a new coach—David Scott—and a will to win. Their playing technique was much improved, their discipline was strong, and their physical conditioning was a plus in their favor. No team "ran over them" and although they posted no wins, their ties with Greensboro and Wofford were impressive.

Goalie Stan Baranowski was a consistently good player. The season's last game with Winthrop was a particularly good game for Baranowski, as he collected 17 saves. Mark Principe (see opposite page) was the leading scorer, joined by Tom Geocarlis and Rusty Folds. Good play was also given by Bill Wood, Jeff Haste, Hunter Huss, Pat Linville, and Clyde Ellis.

The 1978-79 Lady Bears volleyball team proved themselves in great style by taking a 31-13 record into the AIAW Southern Regionals.

After a slow start of 6-6, the Lady Bears went on to show their strength in a winning streak of 14 straight matches. Once they started rolling they could not stop. Taking a record of 29-11 and the fourth-spot into the NCAIAW State Volleyball Tournament, Lenoir-Rhyne placed second in the state.

Among their victories, LR's Lady Bears claimed wins over Pembroke State, Appalachian, Elon, and Guilford. All this was accomplished through hard work, the excellent guidance of Coach Pat Smith, and the strong leadership of Sally Reid, who was selected to the all-state team.

SALLY REID
ALL-STATE, VOLLEYBALL

Dr. Benjamin W. Goodman has, for 25 years, been the team physician for the Lenoir-Rhyne College athletic department.

A native of Bristol, Tenn., Dr. Goodman attended LR and is a graduate of the University of Tennessee Medical School. He served in the air force in both World War II and in Korea.

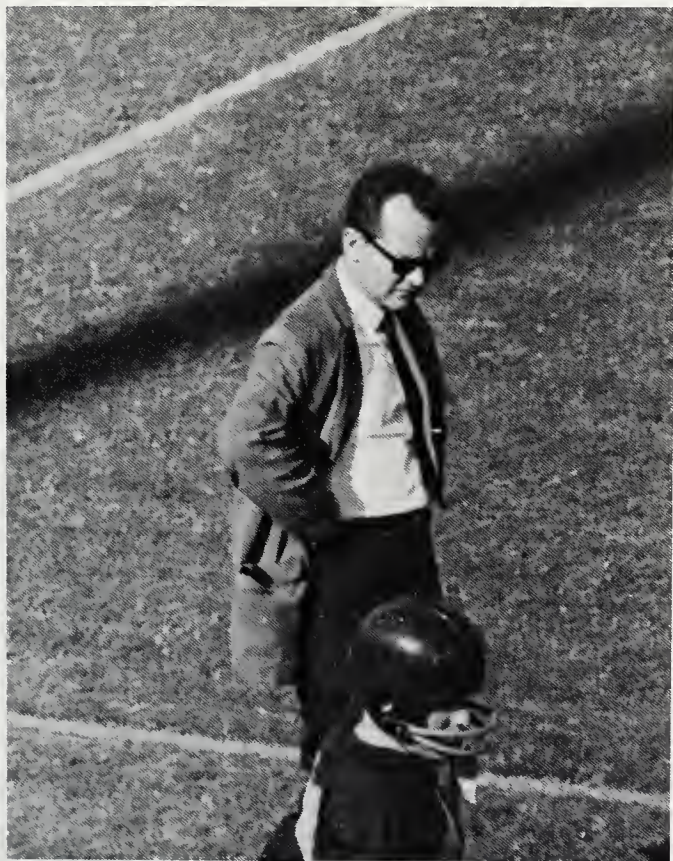

In the fall of 1953, Dr. Goodman began his association with the Bears — one that has carried him to virtually every football game played since that date, including a trip to Tampa, Fla., in 1960 when LR won the national title. Dr. Goodman is shown in the picture below with Athletic Director Hanley Painter receiving a ring from the 1960 squad.

As team doctor, he is responsible for medical exams at the beginning of the season, deals with practice injuries, and is on hand during all games on the sidelines if needed. Dr. Goodman also helps other athletes as well as football players.

We salute Dr. B.W. Goodman on 25 years of service to the athletic program and to the college.

In Appreciation: Dr. B. W. Goodman

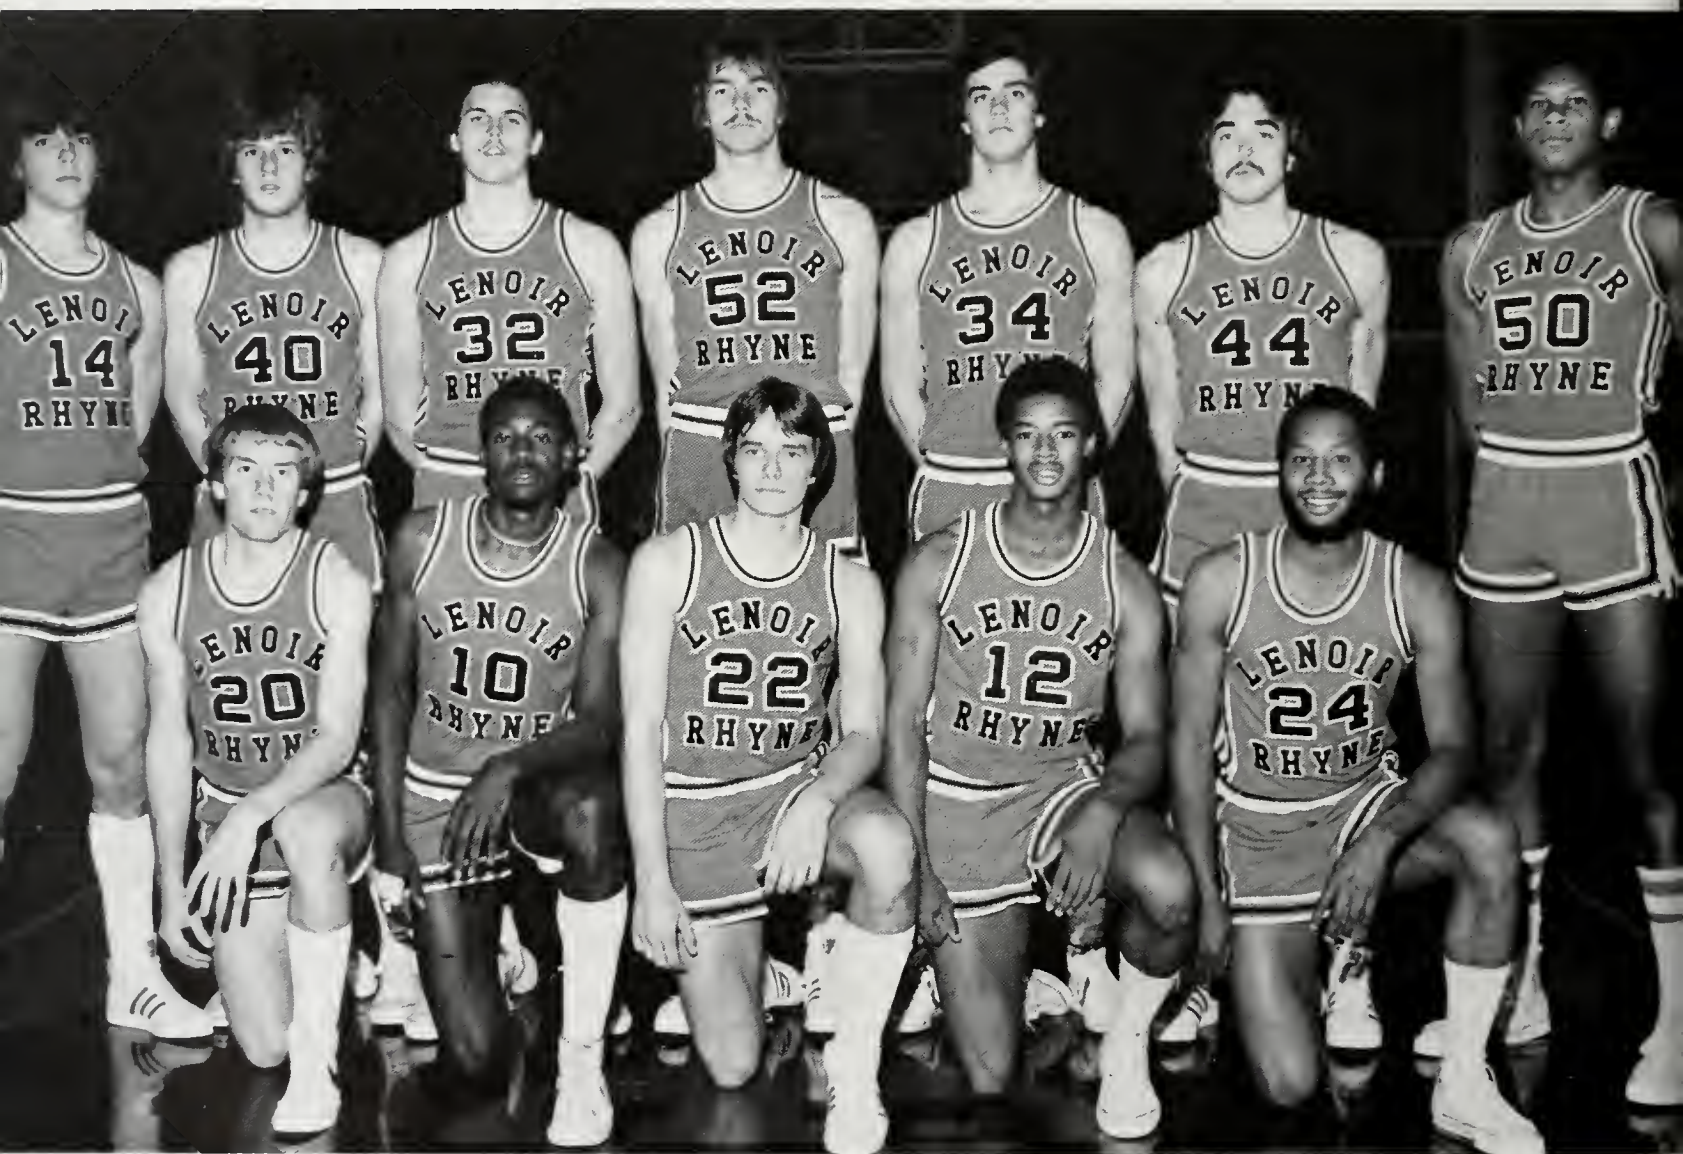

Young Bears Surprised Critics

Coach Neil Hodges, in his first year as head basketball mentor, faced quite a challenge in the 1978-79 men's basketball season. Gone were the five senior starters who led the Bears to national prominence in the previous season. In fact, only two players from that entire team — forwards Mitch Anderson and Mark Moore — would figure in the plans for the new year's campaigns.

However, despite popular predictions to the contrary, the young Bears surprised the critics by jelling quickly as a team and maintaining a winning record throughout most of their grueling schedule. Highlights of the season included an upset of powerful High Point in a Shuford Gym thriller, and two victories over archrival Elon.

With the team composed almost entirely of transfers and freshmen, the future for LR basketball looked bright. Considering the maturity gained by the players during this "rebuilding year," the team could be just one year away from another rise to national ranking.

Lady Bears Strong (Again)

In the tradition of recent years, the 1978-79 edition of the LR Lady Bears basketball team was again a powerful force in women's athletics. Led by junior center Sally Reid, who was complemented by the addition of freshmen Brenda Hairston and Donna Elrod, the squad overcame what might be considered a slow start to firmly establish themselves as one of the best in North Carolina.

One of the major highlights of the season was the Virginia Tech Invitational Tournament championship which the girls won in an awesome manner. Other highlights included victories over UNC-Charlotte and Gardner-Webb, with the team scoring over 100 points against the archrival 'Dogs.

TKE Sugarbears, Funseekers Gain Softball Crowns

The spring of 1978 witnessed another exciting intramural softball season. After the final playoff dust had settled, the Funseekers emerged as the women's champions, while the TKE Sugarbears gained the men's crown. As usual, the season was highlighted by exciting play which proved an interesting part of L-R's spring activities.

Sugarbears, Funseekers Win Football Crowns

The fall of 1978 saw another year of exciting competition in intramural football at Lenoir-Rhyne. Many teams were in the running for the championship, including the APES and the Theta Xi Unicorns in the men's division and the Kappa Delta Bombers in the women's division.

However, after all the games were played, it was the TKE Sugarbears who emerged as the best of the men and the always-powerful Funseekers won the women's crown. The season proved exciting and provided a great opportunity for much of the student body to participate in athletics.

Apes, ZTA Pride Claimed Basketball Shirts

The cold winds of winter were again contrasted this year with the hot pursuit of intramural basketball champions in Cline Gym. After the tightly contested regular season, a tournament was arranged in both the men's and women's divisions to determine champions.

In the end, it was the APES emerging as champs of the men's division, while the ZTA Pride was the best of the women's division. The APES had defeated the TKE Sugarbears and the Blazers to claim their championship shirts, whereas the Pride had beaten the always-powerful Funseekers for their championship.

Each game of the playoffs and regular season was highlighted by aggressive, determined play which had become the trademark of LR intramural basketball.

What does it mean to be a Greek?

A name in the file of numbers,
letters on a jersey,
a sense of pride and belonging.

An opportunity for involvement like you've never known before.

You sacrifice studies for meetings,
sleep for projects and events and,
perhaps,
even a little of yourself
for a greater whole.

Rush is only the beginning of that special brotherhood where friendships are more meaningful than the ordinary kind.

You learn to take others into account yet never lose sight of yourself —
the individual.

Your loyalties expand to include the partners with whom you work and play
the mystic tie you cherish, the college you call Alma Mater.

Relationships are sometimes lasting sometimes transient.

There's the pride you feel when your little brother is honored,
The special glow you feel when your little sister falls in love.
A fuller you —
a larger horizon of experience.

A greek may be a beauty,
a swinger,
a leader,
or just another contestant seeking his role in this role.

But more than that he is one who has found the involvement and caring that comes through responsibility to something more than yourself.

THE SPIRIT WITHIN,
blinding and charged with enthusiasm exemplifies the Greek man and woman at Lenoir Rhyne College.

Greek Awards, 1978

The Greeks of Lenoir-Rhyne College held their twelfth annual Awards ceremony on May 15, 1978, in the dining area of the Cromer Center.

A large crowd gathered and excitement filled the air as the emphasis was placed on the achievement and excellence of the members of LR's eight Greek-letter groups:

Dr. Ellis Boatmon, founder of the Greek Awards in 1966, was master of ceremonies. Gail Wise, president of Panhellenic Council, and Steve McLendon, president of IFC, brought greetings. The National Anthem was sung by SPE Philip Stovall and Mike Riley offered the invocation.

Sigma Kappa sorority began the evening with a beautiful medley of songs entitled "Love is . . ." and at mid-point of the program a Theta Chi group sang a collection of barbershop ballads. Ken Teh served as pianist.

SGA Worked For Many Projects

The Student Government Association has been committed to several projects during the 1978-79 school year, SGA President Stan Baranowski noted that the establishment of a campus radio station was a major endeavor, working in close connection with Eric Rowe and Peter Nicas. Also, SGA worked on acquiring intervisitation for each day per week and for a closed cafeteria system which would permit students to use the meal ticket plan.

When I began working on the 1979 HACAWA, I had high hopes and big plans. But, as Jim Croce said, "There never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do . . ." Deadlines came too quickly and the book had to be sent to Delmar. What resulted is still a book I am very proud of. I have tried to capture the year in words, feelings, and actions. Enjoy it as much as I have enjoyed working on it.

To say "thank you" to my staff hardly seems enough. They have worked diligently and not always under the best of conditions. To each and everyone of them goes my deep appreciation. Several people I am even more indebted to. The '79 HACAWA has benefitted extremely from the hard work of Bill Mayberry, 1978 editor, who headed the sports section, David Pruett who headed the Greek section, and especially to Gail Pruett, who did anything and everything that was needed to be done. Their creative handiwork is seen throughout the book. I also want to extend my appreciation to Dr. Ellis Boatmon who worked with us so closely. The book could never have been printed if it had not been for these dedicated people.

Since a yearbook is largely pictorial, Robert Arey, our director of photography, deserves much credit for the '79 yearbook. Most of the pictures in this book are from his lens. He often worked under trying circumstances both photographing and in the lab to see that we got the pictures we needed. We are most grateful for Robert's aid.

Other LR photographers who assisted us were John Love, Ralph Clark, Grace Chin, Steve Semmler, Cortland Raby, Jr., and we also used pictures from our files by Frank Aull, Ford Weicht, Frank Miller, Bill Davis, and Bruce Sheeks.

We are very much indebted to the good folks at the Hickory News. Charles Deal, editor of the NEWS, was most gracious in helping us with photos, and our sports and theatre sections are richer because of his assistance. Dave Dieter photographed many of the excellent shots we used from the News files.

At the Hickory Daily Record, we acknowledge the generous aid of Sports Editor Dan Richards, who helped us with our sports pages. Record photographers who contributed to the HACAWA were Dick Bell, Robert Reed, and Bob Lupinek. Also, we very much appreciate the assistance given us by RECORD staff members Judy Reif and Doris Clontz.

We appreciate the help given us by Formal Wear Rentals of Hickory, Mrs. B.W. Goodman, Leon Lewis, Mrs. Gloria Smith, and Mrs. Dorothy Flowe.

Class pictures were photographed by Smith Studio of Raleigh, color lab was done by Kelly Color of Morganton, and publication was by Delmar Company of Charlotte.

IN MEMORIAM

... we pause to remember those of our immediate college family who have passed away since the HACAWA last included an "In Memoriam" tribute.
